Burnett, James

From: Planning (SMDC)
Subject: FW: Comment Received from Public Access

-----Original Message-----
From: planning@staffmoorlands.gov.uk [mailto:planning@staffmoorlands.gov.uk]
Sent: Wednesday, November 23, 2016 1:01 PM
To: Planning (SMDC)
Subject: Comment Received from Public Access

Application Reference No. : SMD/2016/0654
Site Address: Land Adjoining Eden Bungalow SANDY LANE BROWN EDGE STAFFORDSHIRE ST6 8QL
Comments by: Valerie
From: McMahon
Apple Tree Farm
Sandy Lane
Brown Edge
Stoke on Trent
Staffs
ST68QL
Phone:
Email:
Submission: Neither
Comments: It is often extremely difficult to travel along Sandy Lane already, without the extra traffic that will no doubt be generated by both this proposed development and a previously permitted development opening on to Sandy Lane. You often have to reverse several times already. Extra traffic would make Sandy Lane even more hazardous for the many child and adult pedestrians that use it.