Application no: SMD/2020/0313

Determined on: 13th August 2020

Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as Amended)

FULL PERMISSION FOR DEVELOPMENT

This permission does not carry any approval or consent which may be required under any enactment, bylaw, order or regulation (e.g. in relation to Building Regulations or the Diversion of Footpaths etc) other than Section 57 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1990.

Location of Development:
Garage/Ex Telephone Exchange at High View, Leek Road, Longsdon, Staffordshire ST9 9QF

Description of Development:
Change of use from householder's garage/store to holiday accommodation

In pursuance of their power under the above mentioned Act, Staffordshire Moorlands District Council Planning Authority, HEREBY GRANTS PLANNING PERMISSION for the development described above subject to the following condition(s):

1. The development hereby permitted shall be begun before the expiration of three years from the date of this permission.

Reason:- To comply with Section 91(1) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (As Amended)

2. The alterations necessary to convert the builidng shall only be carried out in complete accordance with the drawn and written details shown on the revised drawings numbered 2019-2395-03 'B' and 2019-2395-02 'E' that were submitted on the 1st and 4th August 2020. The internal layout of the holiday accomodation shall only be provided and must be used and retained in accordance with the ground floor plan shown on drawing numbered 2019-2395-02 'E'. There shall be no other alterations or enlargements made to the building without planning permission being granted by the Local Planning Authority.

Reason:- For the purposes of clarification and identification and to retain control over the capicity of the accommodation.

3. Within the area of land that is shown edged red on the drawing numbered 2019-2395-03 'B' that was submitted on the 1st and 4th August 2020, the holiday accommodation provided within the converted garage shall not be used, let or separately disposed of as a standalone independent dwellinghouse. The accommodation shall only ever be used or occupied as a short stay holiday let by guests who are on holiday, stay for no longer than four weeks at any one time, and live elsewhere at their sole or primary residence; or by members of the existing household at the dwellinghouse known as High View as ancillary or annexed additional living accommodation.

Reason:- The premises are not considered suitable for permanent residential occupation.

4. Before the development is brought into use the two parking spaces shown on the drawings numbered 2019-2395-03 'B' and 2019-2395-02 'E' shall be provided and throughout the life of the development shall be retained, maintained and made available at all times for the parking of motor vehicles belonging to occupants of the holiday accommodation without any obstruction.

Reason:- To ensure all vehicles that use the existing access have room to park and turn within the site without impacting on the highway.

Informative

The proposed development is judged to be of suitable design and meets the tests of sustainability in planning. There are not judged to be any adverse implications for neighbours or wider public amenity and street scene. As the application was considered acceptable there was no need for any negotiation or amendment as would otherwise be advocated within the National Planning Policy Framework paragraph 38.

NOTES

1. Approval under the Building Regulations may also be required. Advice in this respect can be obtained by contacting the Councils Building Control Section at BControl@staffsmoorlands.gov.uk

2. Where a vehicle is often driven across a grass verge or kerbed footway to and from premises adjoining a highway, the occupier of the premises may, be required to pay the cost of construction of a crossing, and/or may be required to comply with conditions, imposed by the Authority. You should contact the Highway Authority at Staffordshire County Council.

3. This consent is granted subject to conditions and it is the owner(s) and the person(s) responsible for the implementation of the development who will be fully responsible for their compliance throughout the development and beyond. An application will need to be made to discharge conditions and a fee is payable with the application. For more details please refer to our web site: www.staffsmoorlands.gov.uk If there is a condition that requires work to be carried out or details to be approved prior to the commencement of the development this is called a "condition precedent". The following should be noted with regards to conditions precedent:
   (a) If a condition precedent is not complied with, the whole of the development will be unauthorised and you may be liable to enforcement action.
   (b) Where a condition precedent is breached and the development is unauthorised, the only way to rectify the development is the submission of a new application.

4. Other conditions on this permission must also be complied with. Failure to comply with any condition may render the owner(s) and the person(s) responsible for the implementation of the development liable to enforcement action.

5. The permission is granted in strict accordance with the approved plans. It should be noted however that:
   (a) Any variation from the approved plans following commencement of the development irrespective of the degree of variation will constitute unauthorised development and may be liable to enforcement action.
   (b) Variation to the approved plans will require the submission of a new planning application.

6. If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

7. If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.

8. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.

9. If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.

10. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of development, including listed building consents then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk

11. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

12. If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
