Hi Mark

Sorry I'm playing catch up all over the place at the moment.

Yes, I think your suggested conditions are suitable and fully cover all the issues in relation to the trees at the adjacent property. The only minor suggestion is that we could omit the word "demolition" from within the brackets of each condition - i.e. " (including any demolition, site clearance, stripping or site establishment) " as there is no demolition involved with this application, but that's just a pedantic point really.

I am happy for planning permission to be granted subject to these conditions.

Thanks,
Steve
