Comments: The idea that people are elderly at 55 is ageist & totally out of date.People work until they are 80!How do you resell a property with such a condition on it? The whole idea of people living in a village waiting for a delivery service is a nonsense.We want residents to engage with the village & be part of the village. I f the development is for the elderly, there are no footpaths in the village for them to walk safely anywhere.
