Comments: What the council need to understand is 1 objection doesn¿t mean an application should be instantly invalid... The ropers have a vendetta against the park, and without Alton towers, the local area would be very much off the map. The park is in a massive decline due to the fact it can¿t keep up with the demand for attractions of height, speed, noise and basically anything a theme park needs to keep going... There will be a day Alton Towers will go the way of American Adventure, and soon Drayton manor.

I am for every attraction Alton towers wants to build if it means the park actually keeps going¿ if the ropers are so against the park WHICH WAS THERE BEFORE THEY WHERE (or this supposed Florida address that has been published on here, meaning it¿s a fake claim and should be ignored as well)
