I have been advised of some plans in our street. I believe the new frontage and the large plot it will take up this house will be out of scale for the rest of this small cut-de-sac.

I am also concerned about the drainage and sewage system for the rest of the houses, historically it is quite poor. Also the back extension of the house is going to be intrusive to the light of the surrounding houses, mine included.

Basically the plot size will be over developed.
