Comments: Firstly there is no car parking allocated locations as per the land registry. Car parking locations dimensions should be stated as each of the residents has ownership. Its agreed soft landscaping was removed, not agreed was hard landscaping and removal of curbs and edgings from the plan. The standard of the tarmac of court yard is of a low standard and is already beginning to break up. I don't think the rumble strip at the entrance is effected and is a safety risk.

In my conveyancing documentation it states that the curb at the frontage should be raised to full height and pavement reinstated
