Hi all,

I hope everyone is well!

I was wondering whether you could help me to upload this comment online? I have tried to do it on my laptop however it won't let me for who knows what reason!

Your help would be much appreciated!

Kind regards,

Hi Hannah

Thank you.

And thanks for getting the photos for the file.

I have no objection for the proposed like-for-like timber casements. It is historically sensitive, appropriate and well considered, and I am happy that the applicants have done the research and shown what seems to be a concise plan for the works. There will be no impact and therefore less than substantial harm imposed on the structure and I look forward to seeing the repair sometime in the future.

Best
