Categories:

Good afternoon,

Unfortunately there is not enough information on this application to make a well rounded decision.

There are no photographs of the building to properly ascertain its significance or existing status. Nor are there focused images showing the areas (the side ele and windows on the side ele) that are proposed to receive change. Nor is there clarity on the intervention of steps and how these will be created certainly in regard to flooring and floor heights on the interior, materiality etc.
There also lacks any specific detail regarding the proposed doors, material, colour, style, or whos product etc.

Please could I have this information.

Thanks

Emily Holland
