Details of the pre-application advice received:

Dear Matt,
In answer to your queries

1. Cladding – although outside of a Conservation Area the alteration of a dwelling house by cladding is permitted development by reason of Schedule 2, Part 1 Class A of the General Permitted Development Order 2015, there is still the need to comply with the conditions of Class A and in particular A3 which states

A.3 Development is permitted by Class A subject to the following conditions—
(a) the materials used in any exterior work (other than materials used in the construction of a conservatory) must be of a similar appearance to those used in the construction of the exterior of the existing dwellinghouse;

My view would therefore be that planning permission is required.
