Comments: My daughter has used this facility and has every intention to use it again. It is not convenient for her to stable her horse off site because she is disabled. Sir Lee Pearson will of course attract more disabled customers due to the nature of his own disabilities and the tremendous example he sets for others. On site facilities would be a advantage. It should be mentioned that these customers also bring benefits to other businesses in the area. The planned proposals do not appear to be intrusive in anyway to surrounding properties and should be a welcome asset to the area.
