9. Grounds For Application For A Lawful Development Certificate

Under what grounds is the certificate being sought:

- ☐ The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application
- ☐ The use, building works or activity in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application.
- ☐ The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years
- ☐ The building works (for instance, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than four years before the date of this application.
- ☐ The use as a single dwelling house began more than four years before the date of this application
- ☑ Other - please specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).

If the certificate is sought on 'Other' grounds please give details:

The building and the use as a dwelling house is lawful by virtue of the fact that it was built and in use before the 1st July 1948 (the 'Appointed Day' for the Town & Country Planning Act 1947).

This is a Statutory Right that applies to every building in England which was built before 1st July 1948, and thus does not require a specific permission from the District Council. Everything built before this date is treated as an existing/original building for the purposes of planning.

If the certificate is sought for a use, operation, or activity in breach of a condition or limitation, please specify the condition or limitation that has not been complied with:

Reference number: | Condition number: | Date:

Please state why a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted:

The dwelling house predates the appointed day of 1st July 1948. In planning terms it is an existing use/original building.
