Comments: I Would like also to add a note reference to the Local Planning letter from the "Parish Meeting held", that at no point were any of the residence in the local street requested to attend such meeting or made aware this was taking place, I No7 home owner, also No6, also No5, and also No 4, and also the home owners of No3 I have checked with them and Non were invited.

I can assume this is due to the people involved already knowing there would be a number of comments made from these residence over the amount of land already owned and also landscaped at the a joining property and also to the front of their property when a high number of these owners don't have there own gardens etc..... (money can buy anything)

p.s Vote for keeping the country side Green and rural, with wildlife and also hedgerows !! no cutting down trees !!
