Comments: I fully support Robin McDonald in any of his ongoing planning applications. He is a very caring and supportive person. These past few years he had been through the mill and back with a lots of hurdles and obstacles thrown in his way and he has dealt with them in a very patient manner. I hope that all this obstructive battles he has been through with everyone should come to an end now. He is trying to do his very best for the castle to ensure it is continued to be used by the community.
