Comments: I have just moved from Foxt after many years the shed has been there has long as I can remember in fact it was the next construction to my land. It has been tided up and it does not intrude in anyway but then it has been up for approx 46 years. That with standing on the other side of the road across from the forsaid ,are 4 old lorry containers now these are detrimental to the entrance to the village,a real eyesore. Thank you for reading my comments. Yours Sincerely Patricia Mycock.
