Comments: We at this address strongly object to this planning application the reasons it is clear to me that this person plans to turn this building into his original application for a bungalow dwelling as it is exactly the same size.All corner plots on this estate are to be kept open plan if this was passed it would open the gates to everyone to build on corner plots on the estate.As 26 is directly opposite it would block light and view also we would have a brick wall and roof very close to us
