Heritage Statement - 34 Prince George street

The proposed upgrading of the decaying white timber windows with PVC-U white woodgrain units of the same basic style will have a neutral/positive effect on the conservation area, as visually the windows will look like the original wooden units but without any of the peeling paint and decaying wood.