Determined on: 21st January 2021

Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

REFUSAL OF PLANNING PERMISSION

Location of Development:
1 Marsh Grove, Gillow Heath, Biddulph, Staffordshire, ST8 6RB

Description of Development:
Proposed Kitchen / Living Room Extension & Internal Alterations. Demolish Existing Garage.

Staffordshire Moorlands District Council in pursuance of powers under the above mentioned Act hereby REFUSE to permit the development described above and shown in the proposal drawing submitted with the application, for the reason(s) specified below:-

1. The proposal would not deliver quality well designed development that would reinforce local distinctiveness and positively contribute to the character of, and add value to, the local area, or respect the site and its surroundings with a positive sense of place. Instead, the development would enlarge the dwelling disproportionately with additions that would relate poorly to the form and design of the original dwelling. The development would be exposed and prominent and would result in a dwelling that has a disjointed arrangment of shape and size that would adversely affect the character and appearance of the streetscene. The proposal to smooth render the whole of the dwelling would not be in keeping with the character of the area where render is not used as the dominant material. The removal of the chimney would further diminish the quality of the building. The design approach would be at odds with the principles and guidance contained within the Staffordshire Moorlands Design Guide and the development would be contrary to policies SS6 and DC1 of the Stafordshire Moorlands Local Plan and the terms of the National Planning Policy Framework.

Informatives
It is considered that the proposed development would be unsustainable and would not conform to the provisions of the Local Plan or the NPPF. It was considered that the applicant would be unable to overcome the objections to the proposal without a reduction in the scale of the development proposed and a fundamental change to the approach taken with this application, and thus the applicant was not asked to amend the existing proposal before this application was determined.

NOTES

1. If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

1. If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.

2. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.

3. If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.

4. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of development, including listed building consents then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk

5. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

6. If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
