Hi Jane,

We have been consulted on this DOC for Hollington quarry:

Condition 9 – the extents of the visibility splay are not shown. To the west it is shown for 10m but does not seem to be heading for the nearside channel. Maximum achievable vis splay to the west needs to be shown. To the east 27m are shown. Visibility splay of 43m needs to be shown to the full extent to the east. The wall on the frontage is still shown in the visibility splay with no information on what is proposed for it.

Condition 10 – There are no physical means of discouraging access, but clear signage is proposed which is positive. Access is stated as being narrowed but there are no before and after dimensions. At the highway edge there are no dimensions but appears to be a larger bellmouth than currently exists, which can't be right. This needs to be clarified.
Forward visibility within the site is acceptable.

Regards,

Dave
