Submission: Objection

Comments: I feel that I must object to the change of use of Nab Hill House into a residential care home for children who experience a range of behavioural and emotional difficulties. Nab Hill Avenue is narrow residential road with limited space for both parking of the residents cars and space for vehicles to pass each other when driving along the road. I believe that the application will increase traffic on the Avenue from both staff commuting to and from work, support services used by the children such as educational and social workers etc.

I am well aware of the vastly increased demand children with a range of behavioural and emotional difficulties, can and do place on the already heavily overstretched police. The unfortunate truth is these troubled children place increased burden on the police when they are reported missing by the care home, or with the anti social activities they become involved with. The care homes tend to be run with minimal staffing (to help maintain profits) whilst the police are expected to find the children and return them.

I have 2 young children aged 15 and 11 and feel unhappy that such troubled children will be with such close proximity

I feel that Nab Hill House is not a suitable location for a care home
