Comments: I am the owner of a star listed property. The external appearance of this georgian mansion is very important. I am surprised that the same land owners who tried in the past to build stables in front of Knypersley Hall about 200 meters away from the front boundary line are now seeking years later to build some stables on the side of Knypersley Hall even closer to the main building. The whole purpose of maintaining the external appearance so that it looks in keeping with Georgian period. The Hall is clearly visible from the Cricket club and people travelling on Tunstall Road. These stables are in direct path of the above view and look shabby and create mess at the entrance to the Knypersley Hall site. Please do not allow this application. I have spent many years trying to improve the gardens and the many listed trees on the side where the stables will be located. Many thanks
