Comments: This planning is within visibilty of my home and I am unsure why I have not also been made aware of the proposed development?? Teanford is not in need of further development, it is classed as a Hamlet and would hate to think that further housing in this area would change that status. If it the work is carried out by a qualified developer then I would feel a bit more comfortable but if it is built by an amature then I do not believe it would be in keeping with the rest of the houses in the area.
