Dear Ben,

I am going to struggle to look at this in detail before I am on annual leave tomorrow until 10th August- would it be acceptable to provide comments on the 10th?

Having had a quick look at the proposals, it looks as though there are minimal changes in terms of any biodiversity effects - I would just want to check whether the bird and bat boxes proposed can be fitted on the new design or if potentially the details of these may need to be amended? That would be something to confirm with the ecologists FPCR.

Regards,

Kate Dewey BSc (Hons) MCIEEM
