We (Margaret and James Hollinshead object to this development) Firstly I think that we all recognise that Greenfield is extremely precious and once it's gone, it's gone forever. Secondly the land in question is directly opposite my property and the landowner having had previous applications denied has taken it upon himself to place derelict caravans on the property to annoy the residents that objected (we did not object to any previous applications). I think that this shows a complete disregard for the ambience and upkeep of the area, also a complete disregard for the local community and residents. We strongly feel they should not have a part to play in our area, I dread to think what they would do if they got an application approved if this is a sign of things to come. Regards, Margaret and James Hollinshead
