Comments: As a serving police officer having dealings with juveniles in the care facilities in Manchester run by this company I question the suitability of the village location in particular if the children are from more urban environments outside the area.

I have previously dealt with children who when moved to an area of less infrastructure can struggle to adapt to the lifestyle and can then cause problems in the area and increase crime rates.

Brown Edge is a small community village with very few problems other than the odd anti social behaviour.

I also question the location of the site next to a day nursery unless details of any convictions the children may have are disclosed to protect safeguarding the users of the day nursery .
