Comments: In response to the change of dwelling type from dwelling to residential, I would like to object. All five of my nieces and nephews have attended Busy Bees which is situated next door to the proposed site. Whilst there they have had a safe, happy environment to enjoy all they offer. Can this be guaranteed in future? I work in education and have seen first hand a lot of students who go on to thrive regardless of their care status but I have also seen the other side. The ones who are constantly in trouble and cause issues and problems for their care staff and fellow housemates.

If the property wishing to be used was detached and in a less busy site then there would be no issues for me, but it is on a very busy road that has lots of families and businesses on it. This is not the site for this type of proposed change of usage.
