Application no: SMD/2021/0374

Determined on: 01/12/2021

Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

REFUSAL OF PLANNING PERMISSION

Location of Development:

Land East Of Leek Road Wetley Rocks Staffordshire

Description of Development:

Erection of agricultural building for use for lambing, storage of feed, hay and implements and construction of new vehicular access

Staffordshire Moorlands District Council in pursuance of powers under the above mentioned Act hereby REFUSE to permit the development described above in accordance with plans ref:

001
002
003
004
005

for the reason(s) specified below:-

1. The overall proposal by virtue of its scale, height and mass of the building proposed and the excavation and alteration to form the entrance would all combined bring significant harm to the landscape character and appearance of the location. Moreover, the proposed development is considered excessive in proportion to the possible farming needs at this site and in the absence of evidence to the contrary the agricultural need and justification is therefore judged not to outweigh the harms identified. The proposal is therefore found contrary to Staffordshire Moorlands Local Plan policies SS1, SS10, DC1 and DC3 and the NPPF.

Informative

The proposal would not overall improve the economic, social and environmental conditions of the area nor does it comply with the development plan and therefore does not comprise sustainable development. Discussions took place with the agent and applicant but in the end there were no amendments to the scheme that could be agreed nor conditions which could reasonably have been imposed, which could have made the development acceptable and it was therefore not possible to approve the application. The Local Planning Authority has nonetheless met the requirement in Paragraph 38 of the National Planning Policy Framework.

NOTES

1. If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
2. If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
3. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
4. If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.
5. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of development, including listed building consents then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at <https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk>
6. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
7. If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
