Comments: RE - Planning Application For 68, High Lane, Brown Edge

As the previous owners of this property I would like to make you aware that a single garage was not replaced with a double garage. This information stated in one of the comments is incorrect and no planning permission rules have ever been broken..

Due to an accidental garage fire a double concrete sectional garage was replaced with a double concrete sectional garage and planning permission was not needed.

We have many photographs as proof if needed.

Kind Regards

Debbie Harrison & Mark Harper
