Comments: Nemesis is an iconic ride in British culture enjoyed by families over nearly 30 years. The maintenance works will ensure the attraction remains both safe and enjoyable for future generations to. The financial stability of Alton Towers as a business brings custom into the local area such as Alton Village pubs and B&Bs, Dunstone farm shop and as far as Uttoxeter and Stafford for families travelling some way to visit. Regular, reliable visitor numbers are built on the durability of its existing rides and not just the introduction of new ones.
