Comments: Disgusting that this has been allowed. I have read the inclusion of the online ecologist. All that I can say is what planet are they on. Hundreds of trees decimated and nests at this time of year. The chainsawing I have witnessed is indiscriminate. Is that lack of professionals doing the job?

We are in the time of climate crisis and we are supporting funding of steam Trains????

Add to that the track is now also littered with discarded cans, plastic bottles and wrappers. Presumably from the professionals doing the work. May it be an idea for someone from planning to go take a look?
