Comments: We would like to object to certain areas of this planning application. We live next-door but one to the property that are proposing these plans. We have concerns regarding our privacy. Extending the property further back into the garden & then installing a balcony would mean we would become overlooked and therefore would significantly encroach on our privacy and impact on the ability to enjoy our garden. Not only would our gardens become overlooked but also we believe there would be direct view into our side kitchen window.
