Comments: Bagnall Parish Council objects to this application. The Parish Council is a little confused, the application states Stoney Villa Farm, which is 1km away from the actual plot which has the name 'Badger's Croft' on the gate. There are already some concrete slabs in place currently and we therefore assume this is a retrospective application. The application states that the buildings are 'temporary'. It is our understanding that temporary buildings with no previous planning permission should be moved, approximately every six-months, on skids and therefore do not require paving. In view of the above, and the size of the paving proposed, the Parish Council feels this is an inappropriate development in the Green Belt and strongly objects.
