

appropriately divides this development from the turning circle to enable access to the parcels of land owned by Marsh Green Farm and the Byre. As a result, I would question whether this size of development is practicable bearing in mind the resulting area of the Applicant's Land that is free from the right of way and suitable for any development.

Yours sincerely

Robert A Brindley (Fellow of the Agricultural Law Association)
Managing Partner
Chafes Hague Lambert Solicitors