Determined on: 1st July 2022

Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

REFUSAL OF PLANNING PERMISSION

Location of Development:

34 Brentwood Drive Werrington Staffordshire ST9 0DW

Description of Development:

Proposed front and rear extensions

Staffordshire Moorlands District Council in pursuance of powers under the above mentioned Act hereby REFUSE to permit the development described above in accordance with plans ref: 01018

01018 - AL(0)01

01018 - AL(0)02

01018 - AL(0)06C

01018 - AL(0)07B

01018 - SK(0)01

THL0934 for the reason(s) specified below:-

1. The introduction of a two storey front extension and large gable feature, projecting beyond a well established building line together with a side ramp and hardstanding opposite the property would not respect the scale and character of the existing dwelling as it will introduce substantial bulk to the front of the property and would be out of keeping with the immediate street-scene. The extension would dominate the original dwelling rather than harmonising with it and appearing subordinate to it. In addition, the removal of soft landscaping to meet Staffordshire Moorlands Parking Standards set out under Policy T1 will diminish the quality and appearance of the street-scene. As such, the application is to be considered to be contrary to Policy DC1 in the Local Plan, the Staffordshire Moorlands Design Guide and design advice within the NPPF.

NOTES

- 1 If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- 2 If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- 3 If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- 4 If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.
- 5 If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of development, including listed building consents then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at <https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk>
- 6 The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
- 7 If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
