I fully support the application of the plans to build an extension to 61 Charles Street. I have visited the property on numerous occasions and it is clear to see how the property has been transferred internally to its former glory of a high class cared for family home.

The current conservatory looks what it is, old and worn. It does not fit with the high standard of the home this property has now become. The design of the new conservatory compliments the property and has been designed professionally taking into consideration properties in the close neighbourhood. The new build will be more energy efficient especially within the current climate, benefiting not only Mr & Mrs Mills but also the environment.
