Comments: I'm a local batista and am shocked that yet another food outlet wants to set up here, given we have multiple food outlets and takeaways already and the high street is awash with evening traffic and noise from customers all scrambling for food, the roads are already busy with taxis, we should be looking at attracting different businesses to get people back on the high Street during the day. I'm not against new businesses but I am against further compacted disruption to an already saturated takeaway presence on the high street.
