Comments: There have been many rumours and propsed ideas/applications over the years for a McDonalds in Leek. This is the first time in my memory where a perfect location has been found. I cannot forsee any major disruption with regards to the traffic and it's far enough away from the town centre to not impact on the traditional market town view a lot us have about our town. I've lived in Leek almost my whole life, I think a McDonalds across from Sainsbury's would be well placed. McDonald's are well known to be a good employer, especially of younger people which is something this town will surely benefit from.
