Comments: It is with disappointment that Mrs Bray can again put in a planning application so quickly, what i struggle to understand is that it was turned down last time due to it being "Greenbelt land" yet it still is only 18 months later.

Having discussed matters with my neighbours, some of whom have been very distressed to have to keep fighting - when will this end.

I purchased my bungalow, that would neighbour the properties 12 months ago, when it was refused. It was suggested that the village required a bus route, which Alton does not have, yet Mr Matkin has added in his report Alton now has a bus route - this is news to me and my fellow neighbours?

Please, take a safe and sensible view on this.
