Comments: We are concerned about the planning application for 4 large holiday homes next to the Green Man. The existing Green Man holiday let often has stag, hen & other parties, housing up to 30 guests. We have been kept awake on numerous occasions with loud music until the early hours of the morning. The property does not have a warden or a member of staff on site at all times, so any loud music, loud singing, shouting or other anti-social antics are not kept in check. This is a problem as it is surrounded by residential properties. Our concern is, that if these holiday lets are given permission, the noise level will get much worse.
