Comments: I object to a permanent dwelling on this site. The current situation is nothing but a blight on the area.

A planning application based on rental land when the tenure can be forfeited at any time , is totally unrealistic, and does not give a true picture.

A collection of sheds, vehicles and an assortment of machinery litter the site.

What check is there that the stocking levels are valid, they appear to be high, there are certainly know suckler cows on site.

The close proximity of the brook brings concerns of pollution from animal waste.

This planning application if passed, will set a president for others, to purchase or rent land and claim high stocking levels to secure a planning approval.

In the last few years, Foxt has had a high level of planning applications passed, leaving a blight on the village.
