Comments: Having read through the application, I am in support of this.

Whilst I appreciate traffic concerns, these Drive Thrus aren't known for being overly busy at all hours of the day. I cite the example at Trafford Centre which is largely empty in a high traffic area. I think it's more likely that people already passing the establishment are likely to use it as opposed to people coming out of their way to visit it.

Additional jobs are always a welcome. Developing a site that hasn't been used for a period of time is also a huge positive.

The business itself is largely unique, specialising in Canadian coffee and Donught holes, something of a niche that shouldn't impact other local businesses near by.

I support the application.
