Comments: Overall I feel the project is a good idea due to the eye sore of the New Inn and the danger it causes from Denford to the A53. The highways have said there has been 1 accident in the last 5 years. This may be reported accidents, However as a resident on Denford Road I have witnessed 2 within the last 12 months.

Additionally, even with the 40 mile per hour speed limit on the A53, people still continue to travel way in excess of this speed, most likely in preparation for the commencement of the 60mph limit shortly after the junction for Denford Road in the Leek to Endon direction. In relation to this I suggest that there should be stronger traffic speed measures, possibly in the form of a traffic enforcement camera.

As well as the above, Denford Road has a 30 mile per hour limit, which yet again is often seen being broken with vehicles travelling in excess of 30mph and not anticipating the bend where Micklea Lane commences. I again suggest with the additional traffic that this application will bring, that a traffic calming measure such as: speed bump/speed cushions as this will help to control the speed of current and additional traffic on the road, preventing any potential collisions that may arise.

Finally, to pr
