Submission: Objection

Comments: I do not remember this tranche of housing being part of the town plan that was exhibited at the Guildhall a number of years ago and appears to be encroaching onto an area that is currently green fields. 215 houses means hundreds of extra cars on already choked roads. No extra facilities are being included and if families move in, there is no pavement for children and others to use to walk into town making it hazardous for pedestrians.
