Comments: Having moved from Biddulph to Cheadle for a quiet life only to find that a new housing estate to be built on my doorstep I think it's wrong as the roads going into town, at certain times is a nightmare with the traffic. The health service in the town is struggling now so what will it be like when all the people plus the existing residents want a doctors appointment I don't think it will work out. The other thing is the wild life the land what they were use to is dwindling to a point where they will disappear never to return. I hope you take note of my concerns at the next meeting, thank you.
