Comments: The area does not have the infrastructure to support such a large development

It will destroy the beauty and tranquility of the area

The company have no experience of this type of development only caravan sites and will therefore not be in keeping with area

The accommodation market is already saturated in the area and this would lead to the loss of existing local businesses

It will not improve job prospects as no one wants to work in hospitality therefore positions will be filled by people from outside the area or abroad.

The money made from the venture will go into pockets outside of the Staffordshire Moorlands

I see no local benefits whatsoever- better to create a beautiful wildlife habitat and encourage day visitors to the area who want to protect this beautiful area.
