Comments: Biddulph does not need a Dominos. There is already Dominos located in Congleton that offers quick delivery.

Biddulph Town has multiple takeaways that would be affected. There is also a concern about antisocial behavior which is already a major issue at the Sainsbury's store, Dominos would make the location even more appealing for people to hang out and cause trouble.

There is also likely to be an increase of litter in the vicinity.

Overall this is a terrible proposal and must be refused. Preserve our town and give us proper shops and trade.
