Comments: Having lived in Biddulph all of my life, we've gone from a lovely town to a town that stinks from all the takeaway shops that have now crowded out our high street. When are the planning people going to stop filling our town with takeaway shops. We need at least half taking away not putting more in the town. Maybe if Sainsbury's let out their shops at a more reasonable price we might attract some decent shops to Biddulph high street, we did used to have a lot. It's a shame that our high street has come to this, because I love my home town.
