Submission: Objection

Comments: Monkhouse is a steep, winding single track private road owned by the residents, not the residents of Friars close who have never had any vehicular right of access through Monkhouse.

Lorries, concrete wagons etc can not safely (if at all) access the street ,and if they could they would block the road for the actual residents.

The legality of allowing this property to access Monkhouse from the garden of a house that is about half a mile away by road also needs to be clarified.

This development and the massive upheaval would adversely affect the people of Monkhouse and the surrounding area.
