Comments: Hello

I was under the impression that building works had been paused on the new properties on Tenford Lane by Markden Homes.

If this is the case how can they still be working on the current houses that have been built too high, fixing in windows etc. Moving sole on the highest part of the plot.

Please can this be explained especially after the planning meeting when Markden Homes were told they would have to submit new planning.

Please can this also be investigated.

I look forward to an early reply.

King regards

Mrs Marr
