Application no: DET/2024/0001

Determined on: 26/01/2024

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (GENERAL PERMITTED DEVELOPMENT)
(ENGLAND) (AS AMENDED) ORDER 2015

PRIOR APPROVAL REQUIRED AND DETAILS SUBMITTED REFUSED

Staffordshire Moorlands District Council hereby REFUSE approval for the siting and appearance of the development proposed for

Application to determine if prior approval is required for a proposed cattle shed to house cattle that live there at Land Off Broad Lane Brown Edge in accordance with the submitted application, details and accompanying plans listed below:

Location Plan PP-12705690v1

for the following reasons:-

1. The proposed development by virtue of its ground area and height would not comply with Part 6 Class A.1 (e) and (g) of Schedule 2 of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 (as amended) and the application does not have sufficient information to determine it against Class A.1 (a) and (i) of the same Part.

Informative

A full planning application will be required for the development applied for. A Prior Approval application under Part 6 of the GPDO can be submitted for an agricultural livestock building not exceeding a ground area of 1000 sq.m or total height of 12.0m if the site is part of adjacent farmland exceeding 5.0 hectares and it is demonstrated that the building is over 400m from non-agricultural dwellings (as required in Class

A.1(i)). Any future Prior Approval applications should include a Site Plan to show the exact siting of the building, a plan of the agricultural holding/unit with boundaries shown in blue (to determine if it complies with Class A.1(a)) and preferably elevation drawings so that the impact on the appearance of the area can be determined.

NOTES

1. If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
1. If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
2. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
3. If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.
4. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of development, including listed building consents then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at <https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk>
5. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
6. If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
